

K-Love radio is a vital part of my community. It brings positive encouragement to its audience. It provides word news as well as local events. Replacing the station by an LPFM broadcaster would place a void in our home and community. K-Love provides a unique service to my community through its international appeal.